

If you are located in the province of Quebec, this section applies to you under Law 25:

Certn collects, uses, and discloses your personal information with your express consent for the purpose of preparing the Report requested by the Company. Your personal information will be communicated outside Quebec for processing, and by consenting, you authorize this transfer. Certn applies contractual safeguards and internal governance measures, including a privacy impact assessment, to ensure compliance with the Act Respecting the Protection of Personal Information in the Private Sector and to protect your privacy rights.

Your Rights and Contact Information

You may withdraw your consent, access your Report, dispute its accuracy, or request a correction or deletion at any time by contacting Certn's Privacy Team at privacy@certn.co or through our website. More information about how Certn collects, uses, discloses, and stores personal information is available at legal.cern.co.
