

Education Verification Consent

I authorize Certn to collect, use, disclose and verify my personal information related to my previous and current education for employment background screening purposes.

I understand and agree that:

(1) Information Sharing & Verification: Certn may contact educational institutions, education verification providers (including HEDD and Auradata) and other relevant sources to verify my information through any reasonable means.

(2) International Transfers: My personal information may be sent to and verified in countries where I have worked, studied, or resided.

(3) Employer Use: My prospective employer may use this information to evaluate my employment suitability.

(4) Electronic Consent: This electronic consent is legally equivalent to a written signature and may be shared with references as proof of authorization.

(5) Withdrawal & Consequences: I may withdraw consent at any time but understand that refusing consent may void any conditional job offer.

(6) Adverse Action Notice: If employment is denied based on background screening results, I will be notified and provided with source information as required by law.

I acknowledge reading Certn's Privacy Policy and confirm this consent is informed and voluntary.
